

Peace-making in Northern Ireland

IARF post-Congress 2014 visit to Northern Ireland

Small local peacework organisations will speak on topics such as 'Community Dialogue'. There will be speakers on Church and Identity; also, from the Northern Ireland Police Service.

Your tour leader will be Rev. Chris Hudson.

Yehuda Stolov will bring the benefit of his wide and deep experience of peace-making in the Holy Land.

Meals will be provided at the events.

Your only costs will be your airfare & accommodation: £200 per person for 4 nights' accommodation in the Centre and all ground transport.

Itinerary & Program:

27th Wednesday

Congress ends 15h00

Depart Birmingham City airport, arrive Belfast International - times to be confirmed

Coach transfer to Larne, check in at Drumalis Centre

Supper at Drumalis

28th Thursday

Coach transfer from Larne to Belfast

Morning – Symposium in Crumlin Road Gaol on the theme of Conflict Resolution – speakers from the Loyalist community

Light lunch and tour of the Gaol

Coach transfer to Larne for supper at Drumalis

Evening musical entertainment

29th Friday

Coach transfer from Larne to Belfast

Morning – discussion group in the Duncairn Centre for Culture & Arts on the subject of religions in conflict

Light lunch in Duncairn Centre

Afternoon – open-top bus tour of Belfast

Evening – Interfaith service in All Souls' church , Belfast

Supper in All Souls'

Coach transfer to Larne

30th Saturday

Coach trip to North Antrim Coast, visiting the Giant's Causeway, stopping for a light lunch

Farewell meeting in Drumalis followed by a reception in Larne Non-Subscribing Presbyterian church.

31st Sunday

Coach transfer to Airport for return flights to England